GENERAL INFORMATION

Linux Autumn is Poland's longest-running conference dedicated to Linux and free software. For years, it has attracted open-source enthusiasts, programmers, administrators, and GNU/Linux users. Over the course of three days, participants can attend lectures, workshops and discussion panels led by experts and community members. The programme covers a wide range of topics: these include Linux, admin tools, DevOps, CI/CD, hardware, infrastructure, programming, AI, security, hacking, online privacy, open-source gaming and the legal and social aspects of FLOSS.

Organised by the Polish Linux Users Group (PLUG), the conference takes place at the Hotel Przy Młynie in Rybnik. After the main part of the conference, participants spend their evenings talking, sharing experiences and socialising in a relaxed setting. This provides a valuable networking opportunity to meet like-minded individuals and build relationships within the open source community.

OUR PLAN

Last year, we celebrated the 20th anniversary of Jesień Linuksowa (Linux Autumn) with events in Rybnik that attracted several dozen participants from across Poland, with a further several dozen joining remotely. The event featured keynote speeches from renowned speakers, including Jakub Mrugalski and Tomasz Zieliński (Informatyk Zakładowy), along with representatives from "Internet. Czas działać!" ("Internet. Time to act!" foundation — Arkadiusz Wieczorek and Kuba Orlik.

This year, we are preparing an even richer programme, which will include talks, workshops, lightning talks and evening socialising in a relaxed atmosphere. We will invite guests from both Poland and abroad to enrich the exchange of knowledge and experience. Furthermore, we are pleased to announce that we are also organising pre-conference workshops for beginners.

All lectures will be promoted on our social media channels, and each presentation will be professionally recorded and made available on YouTube and PeerTube, so that participants can return to them at any time. Last year's recordings attracted 26,778 views.

The ticket price for participants includes a comfortable hotel stay with full board, allowing them to fully enjoy the conference and networking opportunities. Furthermore, we are planning a large-scale media campaign with the participation of our partners from across Poland.

We encourage you to familiarise yourself with the sponsorship packages below. This is an excellent opportunity to present your brand in the open source software community and get involved in the development of one of the most recognisable FLOSS conferences in Poland.
